

Draper Notes

September 27, 2014

Let's Hear it Arcadia Facebook Posting

The newspaper is full of letters promoting the tax and the fact that we need a hospital. Anyone who speaks out against it fears criticism and, if they work in the medical field, retribution. It's kind of like speaking out against the school superintendent. I was told to keep my outrage to myself because it will adversely affect my grandchildren in school. I'm not good at closing my eyes to injustice!